Following the success of the two previous editions, the Luxembourg City Film Festival's Virtual Reality Pavilion at Casino Luxembourg – Forum d'art contemporain will once again await festivalgoers with an exciting new programme in 2019. Multiple viewing stations in different locations, including the Casino's mythical basement, will showcase some of the most groundbreaking and inventive works the international VR scene currently has to offer; from award-winning films to stunning immersive experiences. The Pavilion's programme will feature two co-productions supported by Film Fund Luxembourg: the feature-length VR thriller Fan Club starring Sylvie Testud and Mathieu Kassovitz (director: Vincent Ravalec, production: a_BAHN) and the interactive game Playmobil the Movie – VR Adventures (director: Olivier Rakoto, co-production: Bidibul Productions). The second edition of "VR Day", an industry event with case studies and panel discussions bringing together renowned international VR experts, will explore the storytelling and distribution challenges faced by the VR industry today. The VR Pavilion is organised by Film Fund Luxembourg in cooperation with PHI Centre Montreal and in partnership with Digital Luxembourg as part of Luxembourg City Film Festival. It will be open to the public from March, 7 until the 17th 2019.

Couronné de succès en 2017 et 2018, le Pavillon Réalité Virtuelle du Luxembourg City Film Festival reprendra à nouveau ses quartiers au Casino Luxembourg – Forum d'art contemporain avec un programme encore plus original. Plusieurs stations VR seront mises à disposition dans différentes pièces du Casino, dont les caves mythiques du Casino. Elles permettront aux festivaliers de découvrir une sélection d'expériences et de contenus immersifs qui comptent parmi les plus primés et les plus ambitieux du moment. La sélection du Pavillon compta deux coproductions luxembourgeoises soutenues par le Film Fund Luxembourg : le long-métrage en VR Fan Club avec Sylvie Testud et Mathieu Kassovitz (réalisation: Vincent Ravalec, production: a_BAHN) et le jeu interactif Playmobil the Movie – VR Adventures (réalisation: Olivier Rakoto, coproduction: Bidibul Productions). La deuxième édition du « VR Day », journée professionnelle de conférences-débats, d'études de cas et d'échanges autour de la VR, réunira des experts internationaux qui se pencheront sur les défis que rencontre actuellement le marché de la VR au niveau du storytelling et de la distribution. Le Pavillon Réalité Virtuelle est organisé par le Film Fund Luxembourg en collaboration avec le Centre PHI de Montréal et en partenariat avec Digital Luxembourg dans le cadre du Luxembourg City Film Festival. Il est ouvert au public du 7 au 17 mars 2019.

STORYTELLING AND DISTRIBUTION: THE CHALLENGES

The immersive content industry is facing two major issues and challenges at the moment: storytelling – how to write and design meaningful stories for these new audiovisual experiences – and distribution models that are able to bring content to larger audiences.

CASE STUDY EXPERIENCE "DRAW ME CLOSE"

PRESENTED BY TOBY COFFEY HEAD OF DIGITAL DEVELOPMENT, NATIONAL THEATRE UK

PANEL 1 “IT’S NOT ABOUT CONTENT. IT’S ALL ABOUT STORIES. IT’S ALL ABOUT GREAT STORIES.” (MITCH JOEL)

Sceptics and critics lament the fact that many AR and VR experiences are gimmicky or technological experimentation for experimentation's sake, and that they forget or refuse to draw in viewers by simply telling a captivating story. It is a well-known fact that immersive works call on all our senses and that they are at their most powerful when they manage to generate real and raw emotions. The future of VR and new media experiences in general will depend on the quality and appeal of the stories they tell and the scripts they are based on. Narrative skill is of the essence. It is vital for next-generation creators in this new audiovisual field to explore this key creative component and harness the true potential of good storytelling for immersive content.

WITH VINCENT RAVALEC (DIRECTOR, "FAN CLUB"), LANDIA EGAL (CO-FOUNDER & PRODUCER, TINY PLANETS), MAX SACKER (DIRECTOR, "KOBOLD"), VOYELLE ACKER (IMMERSIVE EXPERIENCE PRODUCER, BIJBUL PRODUCTIONS & ON ANIMATION STUDIOS), FRANCOIS LE GALL (PRODUCER, A_BAHN)
HOST TOBY COFFEY (HEAD OF DIGITAL DEVELOPMENT, NATIONAL THEATRE UK)

CASE STUDY VR FICTION "7 LIVES"

PRESENTED BY MARIE BLONDIAUX PRODUCER, RED CORNER

PANEL 2 “YOU CANNOT SET ART OFF IN A CORNER AND HOPE FOR IT TO HAVE VITALITY, REALITY, AND SUBSTANCE.” (CHARLES IVES)

We still lack dedicated venues and exhibition spaces for AR/XR content, and only a very limited number of viewers therefore have access to more ambitious immersive works. The most acclaimed and powerful experiences tend to be location-based and cannot be made available at home. Yet, public appetite for these events is growing. There are plenty of fans of VR and interactive content out there, of all ages, and they are eager to not just play VR games but also explore immersive content in all its shapes and forms using digital technology. This should compel the industry to explore innovative sales and distribution models for these experiences and to expect ambitious plans from new technologies as well as from the scripts and audience development aims of content developers.

WITH EMMANUEL CUENOD (CEO, ARTISTIC DIRECTOR, GENEVA INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL), CAMILLE LOPATO (FOUNDER, DIVERSION CINEMA), ANTOINE CAYROL (PRODUCER & CO-FOUNDER, ATLAS VI), MYRIAM ACHARD (CHIEF NEW MEDIA PARTNERSHIPS & COMMUNICATIONS, PHI CENTRE MONTREAL)

Anna, a mainstream TV star, accepts the invitation of her "fan club" to spend a weekend with them. Very quickly, the encounter turns into a nightmare when she is kidnapped by her admirers, who suffer from borderline personality disorder and who have set out to make her re-experience her career through the emotions she has made them feel. But all is not what it seems, and the motives of Anna's fans may well be far more complex than simple revenge... Vincent Ravalec's first VR film is a reflection on the weight of memory and resilience, in the form of a psychedelic thriller.

Anna, une star de télévision, accepte l'invitation de son fan club à passer un week-end en leur compagnie. Très rapidement, ce moment va se transformer en cauchemar. Anna est kidnappée par des admirateurs « borderline » qui se sont mis en tête de lui faire revivre sa carrière à travers les émotions qu'elle leur a fait éprouver. Mais alors que l'angoisse prédomine, des questions s'installent peu à peu. Est-ce leur folie qui les a poussés à cette mise en scène terrifiante, ou l'histoire a-t-elle des ressorts plus ésotériques et les « fans » des motivations plus complexes ?

Film Fund Luxembourg had the pleasure and privilege, for this year's edition of the VR Pavilion, to rely on the creative services, the production and VR exhibition expertise of PHI Centre Montreal, the hot spot for new technologies and center of excellency for public display of immersive, virtual and interactive work.

The ties built with the multidisciplinary and cultural PHI Centre will, without a doubt, lead to future VR joint ventures and events.

Le Fonds national de soutien à la production audiovisuelle s'est assuré pour l'organisation globale du Pavillon VR 2019, des services de création, de production et d'installation du Centre Phi de Montréal, haut lieu des nouvelles technologies et centre d'excellence de présentation au public d'oeuvres immersives, virtuelles et interactives.

Le lien créé avec ce pôle culturel et artistique multidisciplinaire, qu'est le Centre Phi, permettra de développer dans le futur d'autres manifestations et événements communs.

AGE RESTRICTIONS & HEALTH WARNINGS

- The use of VR headsets is not recommended for children under the age of 13. This age restriction is imposed by VR headset manufacturers.
- Some VR content on display at the Pavilion is suitable for viewers aged 16 or over, and is marked as such in the description.
- It is recommended that pregnant women, seniors, and individuals suffering from mental illnesses, epilepsy, binocular vision anomalies, heart disease, or other serious illnesses consult a doctor before using a VR headset. The use of VR headsets may cause motion sickness in some viewers.

RESTRICTIONS D'ÂGE & PRÉCAUTIONS DE SANTÉ

L'utilisation des casques VR est déconseillée aux personnes de moins de 13 ans. Cette restriction est imposée par les fabricants de casques VR.

Certains des contenus du Pavillon sont classés dans la catégorie « admis à partir de 16 ans » et sont signalés comme tel dans le descriptif.

Il est recommandé aux femmes enceintes, aux personnes âgées et aux personnes atteintes de troubles psychiatriques, d'épilepsie, d'anomalies de la vision binoculaire, de maladies cardiaques ou d'autres maladies graves de consulter un médecin avant d'utiliser un casque VR. L'utilisation des casques VR peut provoquer le mal des transports chez certains utilisateurs.
